Volunteer Guidelines & Expectations

As an iBAM! volunteer, you are an important representative of the festival and its mission to celebrate Irish books, art, music, and culture.

We ask of all volunteers:

- Dress Code: Please dress in business casual attire. While we encourage volunteers to wear black clothing to help create a coordinated look, this is not required.
- Identification: All volunteers will receive iBAM! name tags, which should be worn during your shift to help guests easily identify you as part of our festival team.
- Professional Conduct: We kindly ask volunteers to bring a positive, welcoming spirit—treating all guests, artists, and fellow volunteers with warmth and respect.
- Reliability: Please arrive on time for your scheduled shift and check in at the volunteer desk upon arrival. If an emergency arises and you are unable to attend, let the Volunteer Coordinator know as soon as possible.
- Teamwork: Many tasks require collaboration and flexibility. Thank you for lending your enthusiasm and helping where needed to keep the festival running smoothly.

Your contribution makes iBAM! possible. We are deeply grateful for your time, energy, and dedication to celebrating Irish culture with us.
